The Showing Council's Judges & Officials Group Personal Accident Insurance Scheme Process

Following the accident, you should seek medical advice as soon as possible from the on-sight First Aider or Paramedic.

Remember to obtain a copy of any Medical Report, which may be required later to support your claim.

Report the incident to the Member Body, for whom you were officiating as soon as possible, but as a guide, no more than five days following the incident.

The Member Body will contact The Showing Council on your behalf to report the accident.

The Showing Council will inform the Insurer's to start the claims process with you.
